

EXPERIENCE

Behind the Scenes at the Philbrook and Gilcrease...

an exclusive tour designed especially for museum professionals

The Gilcrease and Philbrook Museums are widely considered to hold some of the finest collections of American Indian and Southwestern art ever assembled. These "behind the scenes tours" were planned by museum staff with the specific interests of museum professionals in mind.

The tours are only available to registrants of the "Caring for American Indian Objects" Institute at the Cherokee Resort and Casino in Catoosa, Oklahoma (July 15-17, 2008)

Monday, July 14, 2008

9:30 a.m.—Bus departs Cherokee Casino and Resort

10:00 a.m.—Behind the Scenes at the Philbrook

12 noon—Lunch

1:00 pm to 1:45 pm - Free time at the Philbrook

2:00 pm—Buses depart for Gilcrease Museum

2:15—Behind the Scenes at the Gilcrease

4:30-5:00—Free time at the Gilcrease

5:00—Buses depart, return to the Resort

$50 per person includes bus transportation, lunch, and tours.

To make a pre-paid reservation, please visit:

www.tribalconference.org.